Situation:

Kirn is a town of ca. 8500 with ca. 300 refugees in the town and the surrounding villages. An Ecumenical refugee help group, coordinated by the Stadtmission, is active in Kirn and seeks through programs such as an International café, to offer friendship and support to refugees.

The Evangelische Stadtmission Kirn, a member of an evangelical alliance in Germany (EGFD), has 26 members and 30-35 who come to services—a church growth situation. A team of one full time worker and 2-3 volunteers are active in the outreach of the church. With the ecumenical group they already offer German courses, care and advice for refugees, tutoring for children in classes 1-6, evangelistic children's programs, counseling ...
